Bottle Green liveries are usually supplied to the Jamadars, Chobdars and Daffedars of the General and Revenue Secretariat once in 3 years. The last supply was made in January 1924 and the next supply is due - now.

The two Jamadars and 3 Chobdars of the Dewan's Office have already been supplied with these uniforms. The remaining men to be supplied with these uniforms are 4 Jamadars 3 - Chobdars and 8 Daffedars. The amount allowed by the Mysore Account Code for the uniforms of the above are Rs.60/-, Rs.48/- and Rs.42/- respectively.

3 @ 50/- = Rs.150/-
3 @ 40/- = Rs.120/-
8 @ 35/- = Rs.280/-
Total =Rs. 550/-

The cost of the suits exclusive of turbans for all the above men comes to Rs.550/-.

In connection with the issue of white clothing last year, an excess of 45% was sanctioned over the - rates allowed by the Account Code in view of the - changed prices and wages.

Scarlet uniforms have been issued to the - Jamadars, Chobdars and Daffedars of the Dewan's Establishment. It is a point for orders whether scarlet uniforms may be issued to all Jamadars, Chobdars and Daffedars working in the General and Revenue Secretariat. It looks very invidious to have some with - scarlet and some with bottle green liveries, though all of them are working in the same office. Moreover, it is learnt that there is a large surplus stock of red banath available in the Military Stores and that the same is proposed to be sold at reduced prices. A sample of the same is enclosed herewith and uniform stitched out of this cloth will look very decent b Orders are solicited for:-

(a) Changing Bottle Green into Scarlet uniforms so that all Secretariat Jamadars, Chobdars and Daffedars may have one uniform livery.

(b) Obtaining the required quantity of red Bannath from the Military Stores at a price to be fixed by - Government.

There seems to be no objection to issue ~~red~~ scarlet uniforms to all Secretariat Jamadars, Chobdars & Daffedars. The Bottle Green clause is in my opinion not a good clause. There is a good deal of red Bannath in the building stores which has to be sanctioned for cutting or cutting. Steps may be taken to utilize the Bannath & supply scarlet uniforms as suggested above.

Dewan 9)

I have no objection to the uniforms being changed to scarlet as no new uniforms would be issued for some time to come. The question of the Bannath may be referred to the Military authorities for further action.

Representation of Chobdars regarding liveries.

Most respectfully submitted.

Bottle-green liveries are being supplied to us for the past several years in consideration of the fact that it is an honour both to us and to the officers under whom we are working. We understand that an order has recently been issued restricting the supply of the special uniform only to those that work under the Dewan and the Members of Council. We shall feel highly degraded if we are not as usual supplied with the uniform. Therefore, we most humbly beg to approach you with a request that the order may be cancelled and we may be supplied with uniform as was being done hitherto.

We beg to remain,
Respected Sir,
Your most humbly servants,
